

Congratulatory Message from

President Galym Mutanov, Al-Farabi Kazakh National University

It's my great pleasure to cordially congratulate you on the 70th anniversary of Saitama University on behalf of Al-Farabi Kazakh National University's academic staff, faculty, alumni and myself.

We are proud to be a reliable partner of Saitama University. We acknowledge the outstanding achievements of Your university over the past 70 years to become an internationally recognized institution of excellence in education. Your achievements in science and education, and well-recognized position of your highly esteemed university demonstrates your commitment and many years of hard work of the whole academic community of the University.

Students are fortunate enough to come to Saitama University and will leave with more than they perhaps expected to find – not just an excellent education, but an understanding of the power of knowledge to shape a better future.

Under your wise and forward-looking governance, Saitama University has been transformed into a socially committed institution with excellent teaching and research capacity. It is a highly respected member of the national as well as an international academic community. As you distinguish 70 years of success, you have every reason to be proud of the University's past and excited about its future. I am certain that Saitama University will continue its vocation of preparing students to engage successfully with the world for many years to come.

Let me express congratulations to the Saitama University on reaching this milestone and on its many distinguished achievements in research, teaching, and public service as it celebrates its Anniversary. I wish Saitama University many more accomplishments in the years to come!
